

Two Mothers Dialogue

Two women dress to represent a U.S. homeless mother and a mother living in poverty in Afghanistan or some other place in the news. The reading demonstrates that the concerns and needs of mothers are very much the same the world over. Follow the reading with someone in your group explaining how they can assist others by giving a gift to the TOOLS & BLANKETS Program.

I am a mother with young children living in this homeless shelter.

I am a mother with young children living in Afghanistan.

Each morning I wake to face the problems of the day...

Each morning I wake to face the problems of the day...

Will my job provide enough money to care for my children?

Will my job provide enough money to care for my children?

Will there be food to prepare for dinner?

Will there be food to prepare for dinner?

Will everyone be healthy today?

Will everyone be healthy today?

I just want the best for my children.

I just want the best for my children.

I know a good education can lead to a better, easier life for my children.

I know a good education can lead to a better, easier life for my children.

But I have no extra money to buy enough food and other necessary things for my family.

But I have no extra money to buy enough food and other necessary things for my family.

Sometimes I feel like I am the only one in the world with so many problems.

Sometimes I feel like I am the only one in the world with so many problems.

First Presbyterian Church, Elkhart, Indiana (Adapted)

